1 The parties appeared before the Court on November 30, 2011, upon the request of Defendant
 2 Gary Lee Hardeman to amend his conditions of release in light of the anticipated lengthy delay in his 3 trial date due to the government's interlocutory appeal of the district court's dismissal of Count Two 4 of the indictment. The issues raised before the Court related to use of a computer by Mr. Hardeman
 5 and increased time outside of the home. The Court provided guidance as to the computer and time 6 outside of the home for exercise, indicating that additional time outside the home would be 7 addressed in a step-by-step approach, and inviting Mr. Hardeman to seek further amendments to his 8 conditions of release after another couple of months.

9 Upon considering further argument by the parties on December 1, 2011, the Court grants the 10 request to amend the conditions of Mr. Hardeman's pretrial release to permit him, at the direction of 11 Pretrial Services: (1) to have in his residence and use a computer for purposes to be pre-approved by 12 Pretrial Services, that is equipped with software that permits monitoring by Pretrial Services (any 13 use of a computer for internet access will be subject to pre-approval by Pretrial Services, including 14 pre-approval of the sites to be visited, and will be subject to monitoring by Pretrial Services); and (2)
 15 to be permitted to leave his residence to exercise in a gymnasium to be approved by Pretrial Services
 16 for up to four hours per week. All other conditions to remain the same.

17 IT IS SO ORDERED.
